The banner features the ATT logo, the United Nations emblem, and logos for the European Union, ATT, and Unitar. The text reads: 'Arms Trade Treaty Annual Reporting Course'.

Welcome to the Arms Trade Treaty Annual Reporting course.

This course aims to guide you through the Arms Trade Treaty (ATT) annual reporting process. You will examine the treaty's purpose and legal foundation, understand your reporting obligations and their benefits, and learn the practical steps to initiate and manage your national reporting cycle. By the end of this course, you will be equipped with the knowledge and tools necessary for timely, accurate, and effective ATT annual reporting within your national context.

Module 1 - Introduction to ATT Reporting

This module explains the purpose, legal context, benefits, and overall process of ATT annual reporting, including roles and responsibilities.

From the second time you need to access the course, repeat steps 1,2 and 5 to access the course page.
